

The articles will be published in the reviewed publication of academic papers the Role of Higher Education Institutions in Society: Challenges, Tendencies and Perspectives (ISSN 2029-9311), which is placed in the Index Copernicus database included into the list of databases of recognized international databases compiled by the Lithuanian Science Board. The e-publication will be issued in June 2014 (a paper variant will not be issued).

Requirements for the article

The volume of the article is from 4 to 7 pages. The articles must contain the required structural parts of scientific publications: raising and grounding of a research problem, defining the research subject, goal and objectives, indicating research methods, presenting the research results, making conclusions, and supplying a list of references.

The content of the article shall be presented in the following sequence:

The title of the article.

The author's name, surname, represented institution.

Summary of the article in the language of the original (up to 600 characters) and the keywords (3–6).

The Introduction shall describe the importance of the analysed subject as a research problem, defines the goal and objectives.

The structural parts of the article have to correspond to the raised objectives.

The list of references is made in the alphabetic order (firstly, references according to Latin alphabet, later – other alphabets). The list of reference must include all the sources mentioned in the article. Unmentioned sources are not included.

The Summary in a foreign language (at least 2000 characters). The Summary should present the research problem raised in the article, methodology of research (for empiric research), main outcomes and conclusions.

If the names of the authors are mentioned in the text, references should be made to the particular sources, (in the brackets after the author's name including the year of publication). If the article mentions a two-author source, both names should be indicated; in case of three and more authors, only the first author's name is mentioned followed by etc. If the mentioned source does not have an author, the reference indicates only the title of the source and the year of publication.

The text shall be layout by MS Word program A4 format sheets, one column, font Times New Roman, space between line 1, the margins: upper and lower – 2 cm, left – 3 cm, right – 1 cm. The paragraphs begin with 1,27 cm indent. The sections of the article use the following font size and style:

- The title of the article: text centred, size 14 pt, bold;
- Author's name and surname: text centred, size 12 pt, bold;
